

Anne Lacaton (Saint Pardoux la Rivière, Francia, 1955)

ARQUITECTA, COFUNDADORA DE L'ESTUDI LACATON & VASSAL ARCHITECTES.

Diploma Architecture school of Bordeaux, France, 1980

Diploma of town planning, University of Bordeaux, 1984

Visiting professor at Architecture school of Lausanne , wint. 2003-2004, sum.2005-2006

El seu estudi ha obtingut el següents premis:

- Grand Prix National d'Architecture 2008, France.
- Award "Sustainability and Residential Innovation", City of Madrid, 2006.
- Grand Prix National d'Architecture Jeune Talent, France, 1999.
- Lauréats des Albums de la Jeune Architecture, France, 1991.
- Mies Van der Rohe Award - European Union Prize for Contemporary Architecture.
 - Finalist in 2007 for the Management Sciences University, Bordeaux, France.
 - Finalist in 2003 for the Palais de Tokyo, Site for contemporary creation Paris, France.
 - Shortlisted in 2005 for 14 social dwellings, Mulhouse, France.
 - Shortlisted in 1997 for the University of Arts and human sciences, Grenoble, France.
- Equerre d'Argent Award – France.
 - Shortlisted in 2006 (Management school- University Montequieu - Bordeaux), 2002 Office building, Nantes), 2001 (Palais de Tokyo, Paris), 1999 (House in Lège Cap Ferret), 1996 (University of Arts and human sciences, Grenoble).
- Prix d'architecture de la ville de Bordeaux in 2008 for the Management School- University Montesquieu –Bordeaux.